1. Introduction

This Board Charter (the “Charter”) sets out the role, responsibilities, structure and processes of the Board of Bank One Limited (the “Bank” or “Bank One”). The provisions contained in this Charter are complementary to the requirements of the legislations and regulations, the Bank’s constitution, the shareholders’ agreement and the provisions governing the relationship between the committees and the Board as contained in the respective committees’ terms of reference, which have been approved by the Board.

This Charter is posted on the Bank’s website.

2. Role and Responsibilities

The role of the Board is to provide leadership and strategic guidance to enable Bank One to attain its strategic objectives. The Board has ultimate responsibility for the affairs of the Bank and is accountable to the Bank’s shareholders. In performing its role, the Board aspires to excellence in governance standards and should be guided by the interests of the Bank and its business, whilst taking into consideration the interests of all its stakeholders.

2.1 Strategy

- a) Set the Bank’s vision, mission and values;
- b) Approve the short term and long term business objectives, strategies and business plans of the Bank and its subsidiaries together with the appropriate policies to execute such strategies, including those relating to risk management, capital adequacy, liquidity, risk appetite, compliance, internal controls, communication policy and director orientation and evaluation.
- c) Monitor and evaluate the implementation of strategies, policies and performance measurements;
- d) Ensure optimal use of capital;
- e) Review, monitor and approve important capital expenditure of the Bank, including investment in information technology and strategic assets and ensure that they are prioritized according to the Bank’s strategy;
- f) Approve the capital and operating budgets, capital adequacy assessment process, capital and liquidity plans;

2.2 Risk Management and Internal Control

- a) Identify and assess key risk areas of the business and ensure that measures are taken to mitigate those risks;
- b) Ensure that effective internal control systems and policies are in place to safeguard the Bank’s assets and to achieve a prudential balance between risks and returns to shareholders;
- c) Ensure that the Bank’s operations are conducted prudently and within the framework of laws and Board policies;
- d) Ensure compliance with laws and regulations, including risk management and corporate governance practices and disclosure requirements;
- e) Clearly set the roles and responsibilities of senior management, internal organizational structures as well as board sub-committees, as applicable, for the management of climate-related and environmental financial risks;
- f) Approve the implementation roadmap for the setting up of a strategy and risk management framework for climate-related and environmental financial risks and opportunities. Periodically review, through the Board Risk Management Committee, the implementation progress of such roadmap.
- g) Retain responsibility for the overall stress testing framework, including the oversight of the framework.
- h) Through the BRMC, ensure that the Management reviews the stress testing framework at least on an annual basis to ensure that it remains up to date and relevant.

2.3 Financial Reporting

- a) Approve the quarterly and yearly financial results, and in consultation with the Audit Committee, ensure that these have been prepared using the appropriate accounting policies and standards and fairly presents the state of affairs of the Bank;

2.4 Supervision of the Management

- a) Be responsible for the appointment of the CEO and other senior officers and assessing periodically their performance in the context of established corporate objectives and plans and risk appetite framework; Where the CEO is concerned, the Board shall, with the assistance of the GNRC, set out the criteria for measuring the CEO's performance in achieving the approved corporate objectives and such performance review shall be conducted annually by the GNRC & the Board.
- b) Ensure that there is a clear demarcation of duties and responsibilities between the Board and the Management in order to implement an effective accountability regime. The Board should be independent of the Management and shall periodically hold board meetings where management officials are not present.
- c) Evaluate the performance of the Senior Management and (by delegation, its Nomination and Remuneration Committee) implement a remuneration and incentive scheme to stimulate staff motivation to achieve the corporate objectives. The approach shall be reviewed periodically to assess its effectiveness and decide on any modifications, as necessary.
- d) Ensure adequate succession planning of the Senior Management team;

2.5 Governance and Relationship with Shareholders and Other Stakeholders

- a) Ensure, through the GNRC, that new board members participate in induction programmes and that all directors have access to ongoing training on relevant issues which may involve internal or external resources.
- b) Protect the interests of the Bank and ensure, through the adoption of good corporate governance practices, that decisions taken are sound and prudent and in the legal interest of all its stakeholders.
- c) Ensure effective communication with the regulators, shareholders and other stakeholders.
- d) Implement policies and procedures to identify potential conflict of interest situations involving different levels of staff and board members and establish processes to identify, report and deal with such situations.

2.6 Related Party Transactions

- a) Establish policies and procedures to comply with the requirements of the guideline issued by the Bank of Mauritius on Related Party Transactions ("RPTs");
- b) Review such policies and procedures periodically to ensure their continuing adequacy and enforcement in the best interest of the Bank;
- c) Ensure that market terms and conditions are applied to all RPTs, excluding related party transactions to Senior Officers of the Bank which shall be governed by the Bank's Staff Loan Policy;
- d) Consider and approve, if thought fit, credit exposure to Related Parties (other than senior officers) and Associated Parties as per the applicable policies;
- e) Consider and approve, if thought fit, credit facilities to the Senior Officers of the Bank for which the terms and conditions would not be in line with the Staff Loan Policy of the Bank;
- f) Consider and approve, if thought fit, non-credit-related RPTs; The Board may wish to delegate to the CEO, the authority to approve non-credit-related RPTs up to a certain amount that it may deem fit.
- g) Review the practices of the Bank to ensure that any transaction with Related Parties that may have a material effect on the stability and solvency of the Bank is identified and dealt with in a timely manner;
- h) Write-offs of related party credit exposures shall be subject to the prior approval of the board of directors.

3. Board Composition

The Board should be composed of at least 7 members and should not exceed 10 members, 40% of which must be independent. The Board should have a right mix of independent, non-executive and executive directors, taking cognizance of the Guidelines of the Bank of Mauritius and the Code of Corporate Governance for Mauritius (the Code).

All members of the Board should be individuals of integrity and, collectively, should bring a blend of knowledge, skills, objectivity and experience to the Board to enable it to carry out its functions effectively. Personal attributes expected of all directors are included under Annex D of this Charter.

Directors shall be nominated / appointed subject to their meeting the criteria set by the Bank, in accordance with the Banking Act 2004, the Bank of Mauritius guidelines and the Code. The Board Skills Matrix and the Board Succession Policy will provide guidance to the Board to establish a framework to identify the knowledge, skills and experience required at the Board level to effectively discharge the Board's legal role and responsibilities as these evolve over time. The director nomination process is set out as per Annex A of this Charter.

Directors will be elected or re-elected at the annual meeting of shareholders. Their retirement should be planned to ensure some continuity i.e. there should be a staggered retirement of directors. Except for the Executive Director, no other director shall serve for more than the maximum term of 6 years. Notwithstanding the afore-mentioned provision and subject to the prior approval of the Shareholders, the Board may seek the Bank of Mauritius' approval for the extension of the tenor of a director for a further period not exceeding 3 years.

A former director may be re-appointed as a Director on the Bank's Board after he/she has observed a cooling period of two years and subject to receipt of the required regulatory approvals. Furthermore, the Bank may, with the prior approval of the Bank of Mauritius, approve the re-appointment of a former director who has not observed the cooling period of two years.

The Chairperson of the Board shall be an independent director and shall, in line with the Shareholders' Agreement, be appointed by the Shareholders.

The CEO shall be a member of the Board but shall not be its Chairperson.

4. Board Governance

In order to meet all the legal and regulatory requirements and effectively discharge its duties, the Board may delegate some of its functions to specialized board committees. From time to time, the Board may delegate specific assignments to Directors or other parties to better guide the Board in important matters requiring significant expertise. Delegation however does not discharge the Board from its duties and responsibilities and while delegating authorities, the Board should bear in mind its fiduciary duties and responsibilities under the Companies Act.

As much as they can and within their individual responsibilities as members of the Board, members shall act and speak in concert with respect to important affairs and matters of principle.

The Board has identified the following senior governance positions whose position statements are included as Annex B to this Charter:

1. Chairperson of the Board
2. Chairperson of Board Committees
3. Chief Executive Officer
4. Company Secretary.

In the selection of the of the Board members, senior governance positions, senior management and staff as a whole, the Bank shall adopt a non-discriminatory approach, whether in terms of disability, gender, sexual orientation, gender realignment, race, religion and belief, or age.

5. Board Committees

The Board shall have the following committees to which it can delegate some of its duties:

- 1) Board Audit Committee (BAC)
- 2) Board Risk Management Committee (BRMC)
- 3) Governance, Nomination & Remuneration Committee (GNRC)
- 4) Board Credit Committee (BCC)
- 5) Board Strategy & Investment Committee (BSIC)

The Board shall set out the terms of reference of each committee of the Board and shall also determine its composition. The roles of Chairperson of Committees shall, as far as practical, be well distributed among the directors so that no individual is burdened with too many committees. The Chairperson of the Board shall not be the Chairperson of any Board Committee.

Proceedings of committees shall be reported to the Board to allow other directors to be informed and seek clarifications from the Committee members, if so desired.

The terms of reference and composition of the Committees are posted on the Bank's website.

6. Board Meetings and Decision Making

- a) The Board shall meet at least each quarter or more frequently as may be required.
- b) Meetings shall be convened by the Chairperson, as scheduled or at the request of one or more directors. Meetings may be held by telephone or videoconference, provided that participants can hear each other simultaneously.
- c) Save in urgent cases, the agenda and papers for a Board meeting shall be sent to all Board members at least five working days before each meeting.
- d) The agenda for each Board meeting shall be set out by the Chairperson, the Chief Executive Officer and the Company Secretary. Board members may request that an item be placed on the agenda for a Board meeting through the Chairperson within a reasonable timeframe prior to the meeting.
- e) Board meetings shall be presided by the Chairperson. In his absence, one of the other independent directors, designated by the majority vote of the Board members present at the meeting, shall preside such meeting.
- f) The quorum shall be as defined in the Shareholders' Agreement and in the Constitution.
- g) The Chairperson of the meeting shall consult with the absent members by telephone or other means whenever possible.
- h) Resolutions shall be passed in accordance with the provisions of the Shareholders' Agreement whereby the matters listed out in Annex C shall require the approval of at least one director from each of the two shareholders present at a duly convened meeting of the Board.
The minutes of proceedings of each meeting shall be approved at the following meeting as evidence that the resolutions have been adopted.

7. Evaluation & Remuneration of the Board / Committee Members

The Board shall evaluate its own activities, performance and competence and those of its Chairperson and individual members as well as its committees on an annual basis.

In order to promote transparency, the compensation of the directors will be disclosed in the annual report. The remuneration of directors will be debated and recommended by the Governance, Nomination & Remuneration Committee to the Board for onward recommendation to the Shareholders. Directors must not participate in discussions regarding their own packages.

8. Conflict of Interest

Directors must avoid instances that may give rise to conflicts of interests or which may be perceived by others as conflicting situations. Full information on any conflict or potential conflict of interest must be made known to the Board in accordance with applicable laws and the Bank's policies, and the onus will be on the directors to advise the Board on any change in their situation.

On declaration of his interest, the concerned director shall not participate in the discussions and/or decision taking process on the transaction in relation to which conflict arises. The transaction may however be concluded and approved at market terms and conditions. Related party transactions will also be disclosed in accordance with disclosure requirements and accounting policies and standards.

9. Other Provisions

The Chairpersons of the Board and the Committees, the Company Secretary and the CEO shall see to it that the management provides the Board and its Committees with the information they need in a timely manner so as to properly deliver their responsibilities.

The Board or its committees may, if it sees it necessary, obtain such outside or other independent professional advice as it considers necessary to carry out its duties.

10. Review

The Board's Charter shall be reviewed on an annual basis.

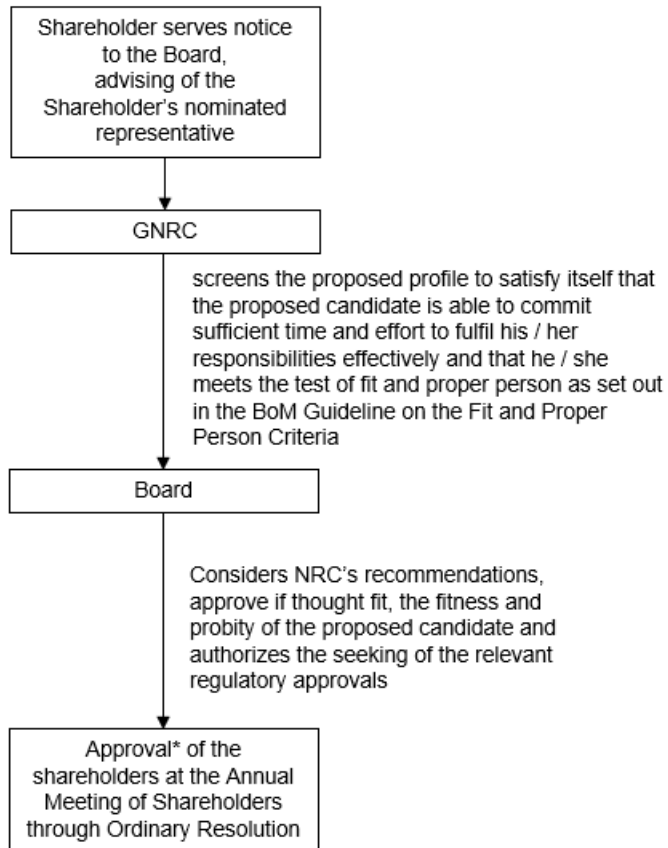

Approved by the Board of Directors on 02 June 2023
